

During the War Fulham workhouse became a Military Hospital, where around 1,000 wounded soldiers from a terrible battle called 'The Somme' were treated.

9. What is here now? _____

This is the J. Lyons memorial to the workers who went and fought and died in World War One from just one local company.

10. How many names do you think there are?

Fulham First World War EXPLORE

Name _____

Date _____

Moylan Road

This is a photo of Edward Dwyer who fought in WW1 and lived at Lintaine Grove

1. What amazing medal did he win at just 19 years old?

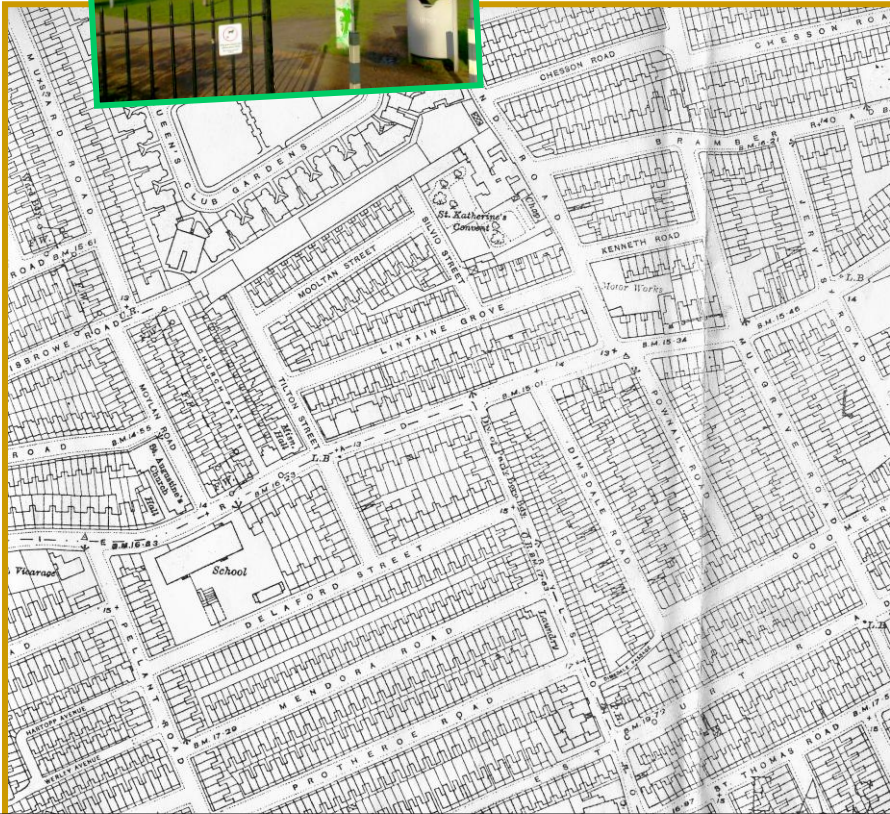

2. What clue from Edward Dwyer's past can you find on Moylan Road?

3. What might have happened to the street where Edward Dwyer and his family once lived?

Lillie Road

Look at this map from 1916

4. What used to be here before Normand Park?

5. Can you mark Lintaine Grove on the map?

Find the information board about Normand Park

6. What happened to the streets that were here?

Margravine Cemetery

This is a WW1 memorial to the Blake's munitions factory workers

7. They were not soldiers, so how did they sacrifice their lives for their country?

31st October 1918

8. What is sad about the story of the Blake's accident?

An example of a WW1 history trail around north Fulham. See session two lesson plans and case study. Allow about 1.5 hours for this trail

